Yes. We rolled out the 2010 Super Raffle in advance of any banquets across the state so that every Chapter could sell these during their event. We will code the Super Raffle ticket sales at your event as an event raffle, so you will get the entire value of Super Raffle ticket sales from that evening applied to your banquet numbers. Since this raffle is costing your chapter $0, this means any Super Raffle ticket sales at your event are 100% net to gross!

No. However, we have found that having the physical tickets helps to actually close the sale at that time. Either way, your chapter will receive full big game banquet credit for each/every ticket sold at your event.

No, just like all banquets, you will need to go to the FFL dealer and submit the proper paperwork for a background check prior to receiving your firearm. If you do not live near Fort Collins, we will arrange to have the firearm shipped to your local FFL.

If I win one of the other non-firearm prizes, can I take it home that night if I am at the banquet?

It depends on the item. The Davis Tent will need to be picked up at the Davis Tent facility in Denver, or you can arrange for shipment to your home at your cost. All other non-firearm items can be taken home that evening from the banquet.
